

DATE: July 28th, 2016

TO: All members of the Lifesaving Society

FROM: Guillaume Maheu, Lifesaving Sport Coordinator

SUBJECT: Call for nominations – Comité québécois de développement du sauvetage sportif (CQDSS)

Dear members,

The Lifesaving Society is currently looking for candidates to fill three (3) positions within the Comité québécois de développement du sauvetage sportif (CQDSS). This committee supports the Lifesaving Sport Coordinator by providing expert advice regarding the revision and creation of content related to the development of lifesaving sport.

If you are interested in applying, send your CV to the Lifesaving Sport Coordinator, along with a presentation letter explaining how your experience is relevant. The following list presents examples of relevant experiences that can be considered to be major assets:

- Relevant experience in 2 (or more) types of lifesaving sport competition (emergency response, pool and surf);
- Experience as lifesaving sport athlete or coach in one or several championships (on the national or provincial level);
- Experience as referee in one or several championships (on the national or provincial level);
- Experience in managing a lifesaving sport club;
- Experience in organizing one or several competitions (on the national and/or provincial level).

Applications can be sent to Guillaume Maheu at gmaheu@sauvetage.qc.ca until august 8th, 2015.

Candidates will be informed on what next steps should be followed as part of the selection process.

Thank you for your interest into lifesaving sport!
