ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

In 2015 the ILS Sport Commission separated content that addresses the Lifesaving World Championships specifically from content that addresses the rules, procedures and standards for lifesaving sport competition generally. This resulted in two new publications: A Lifesaving World Championships Handbook and an ILS Competition Rule Book.

This handbook contains information specific to the November 2018 Lifesaving World Championships Adelaide 2018 to be hosted by Surf Lifesaving South Australia, in Adelaide, Australia. The handbook should be consulted in conjunction with the 2015-2019 edition (revised 2017) of the ILS Competition Rule Book and any amending and/or clarification Bulletins and Circulars (available at www.ilsf.org).

Additional information about the Lifesaving World Championships Adelaide 2018 may be found at <http://www.lifesaving2018.com> and www.ilsf.org.

1. ILS AUTHORITY

- a) The sport of lifesaving contributes to the worldwide drowning prevention mission of the International Life Saving Federation (ILS). As the international federation for lifesaving sport, the International Life Saving Federation establishes rules for the purpose of ensuring a safe and fair system, within which lifesaving competitions may be regulated and conducted.
- b) In addition to the rules and procedures outlined in this document, ILS Lifesaving World Championships are governed by the ILS Competition Rule Book 2015-2019. The ILS Sport Commission may also issue clarifying bulletins or circulars from time to time.

1.1 Lifesaving World Championships

- a) ILS authorises the following Lifesaving World Championships every two years:

- c) All Lifesaving World Championships occur under the auspices of ILS. ILS may conduct the Lifesaving World Championships but usually awards the Championships to a member national lifesaving organisation to conduct on its behalf.
- d) ILS Event Management Committee (EMC): For the Lifesaving World Championships, ILS shall appoint an Event Management Committee (referred to as the Competition Committee in the ILS Competition Rule Book) that is responsible for the management of the competition on behalf of ILS. 3. ELIGIBILITY AND RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE

- a) ILS Lifesaving World Championships are intended for bona fide lifesavers who have demonstrated a commitment to lifesaving – people who are lifesavers first, competitors second.
- b) ILS considers it unethical to recruit competitors for their high-performance athletic ability whose lifesaving credentials are tenuous or merely convenient for purposes of competition.
- c) Team management personnel and coaches are the key to preventing such unethical practices and must emphasise “play within the rules” behaviour. The personal conduct of team managers and coaches is measured by the ILS Code of Conduct in Section 2 of the ILS Competition Rule Book.
